D.C. Court of Appeals to hold oral arguments at UDC

Arguments before 3-judge panel part of a collaborative legal training effort with local law schools

- WHAT: Oral arguments in three pending appeals
- WHERE: David A. Clarke School of Law
Moot Courtroom, 5th Floor
4340 Connecticut Avenue, NW
- WHEN: Tuesday, January 15, 10:00 a.m.-1 p.m.
- WHO: Chief Judge Eric T. Washington
Associate Judge Oberly
Senior Judge Pryor

DCCA has scheduled oral arguments to take place in the Moot Courtroom at the David A. Clarke School of Law on January 15, 2012. Cases to be argued include Ramon Estopina v. Susan O'Brian, Travis Littlejohn v. United States, and Louis Monteilh v. AFSCME, AFL-CIO. This scheduling of off-site oral arguments is the first of two sessions to be held at area law schools as part of the Court's education outreach initiative. The next set of off-site oral arguments will take place at Howard University on January 29, 2013. This education outreach initiative grew out of the collaborative efforts of Chief Judge Washington and the local area law school deans in an effort to enhance the real-world litigation experience of local law students. The judges will participate in several activities with the students, including a Q & A session immediately following the arguments.
