

District of Columbia
Court of Appeals

BEFORE: Blackburne-Rigsby, Chief Judge; Glickman, Thompson,
Beckwith, Easterly, McLeese, and Deahl, Associate Judges.

ORDER

(FILED – November 19, 2020)

The court hereby adopts, on an emergency basis, amendments to D.C. App. R. 46, for purposes of the administration of the October 2020 and February 2021 bar examinations. The text of the amended rule is attached to this order. In sum, the amendments: (1) permit the bar exam to be given over more than two days, in case that becomes necessary for a remote Uniform Bar Examination; (2) eliminate the prior specific dates for administering the bar examination; (3) give the Director of Admissions greater flexibility as to manner of payment; (4) eliminate the “mix-and-match” option for obtaining a passing bar-examination score; (5) eliminate language suggesting that post-examination review of examination results will be done in person; (6) clarify language about failing prior bar examinations; and (7) provide for taking of the oath by declaration in addition to by a notary.

The court expects in the relatively near future to issue a separate notice seeking comments on whether (a) to make these emergency amendments permanent and (b) whether to adopt other amendments to D.C. App. R. 46.
