

No. 99-BG-141

In the Matter of
CHARLES T. TAYLOR, ESQUIRE
A Member of the Bar of the District of Columbia
Court of Appeals

BDN: 4-96

BEFORE: Ruiz and Reid, Associate Judges; and Gallagher, Senior Judge.

ORDER
(FILED - JUNE 24, 1999)

On consideration of the affidavit of Charles T. Taylor, wherein he consents to disbarment from the Bar of the District of Columbia pursuant to § 12 of Rule XI of the Rules Governing the Bar of the District of Columbia, which affidavit has been filed with the Clerk of this Court, the report and recommendation of the Board on Professional Responsibility with respect thereto, and the letter from Bar Counsel taking no exception to the report and recommendation of the Board on Professional Responsibility, it is this 24th day of June, 1999

ORDERED that the said Charles T. Taylor, is hereby disbarred on consent, effective forthwith.
It is

FURTHER ORDERED that as a condition for reinstatement, respondent is required to pay full restitution of $27,500, with accrued interest at the legal rate of 6%, to Ms. Irish Eccles and Dr. Henry Wyatt, as provided in the Board on Professional Responsibility's report and recommendation to the Court. If any portion of the restitution has been made by the Clients' Security Fund, respondent shall repay the Fund. See D.C. Bar R. XI, § 3 (b).

The Clerk shall publish this order, but the affidavit shall not be publicly disclosed or otherwise made available except upon order of the Court or upon written consent of the respondent.

The Clerk shall cause a copy of this order to be transmitted to the Chairman of the Board on Professional Responsibility and to the respondent, thereby giving him notice of the provisions of Rule XI, §§ 14 and 16, which sets forth certain rights and responsibilities of disbarred attorneys and to the effect of failure to comply therewith.

PER CURIAM.
